TARWF Media Release #4

SAVE THE DATE FOR TAF2021

CSI: TASMANIA

5-7 NOVEMBER 2021

Terror Australis Readers and Writers Festival

Huon Valley, Tasmania

- Terror Australis Readers and Writers Festival (TARWF) is Australia's southern-most literary festival, a celebration of books, writing and community in the glorious Huon Valley, Tasmania.
- Following the phenomenal success of our inaugural festival—TAF2019 Murder She Wrote—TARWF is excited to announce the dates for our second weekend-long literary festival with a crime and mystery focus, TAF2021 CSI: Tasmania.
- TAF2021 CSI: Tasmania will be held from Friday 5 to Sunday 7 November 2021 in Huonville.
- The festival will include a two-day panel session program and one day of professional development activities for writers. Program details will be announced in the second half of the year.

- In 2021, we're offering COVID-19 safe in-person experiences and the option of joining us online. By combining both live and virtual elements we'll be able to offer a line-up of local, national and international guests.
- Just 30 minutes from Hobart's CBD, literary lovers who attend in person can luxuriate in all the Huon Valley has to offer, including world-class produce, wine and cider; forests, caves and picturesque villages; stunning scenery and a vibrant arts community.
- This event is made possible by the support of the Huon Valley Council, Libraries Tasmania and the Tasmanian Government.
- Further information will be made available through our website when available:
